Now abide faith, hope and love, but the greatest of these is love.

- One of life's biggest challenges is discovering the love language of people you care about and then loving them the way they need to be loved.
- Being able to discern a person's love language is needed at home, at work, at school and especially in your Victory Church small groups.

♥ Quality Time:

Quality time is more than mere proximity. It's about focusing all of your energy on the recipient.

♥ Physical Touch:

A person whose primary language is Physical Touch is, not surprisingly, very touchy.

♥ Words of Affirmation:

For this love language, actions don't always speak louder than words.

♥ Acts of Service:

Anything you do to ease the burden of responsibilities weighing on an "Acts of Service" person will speak volumes.

♥ Receiving Gifts:

Don't mistake this love language for materialism; these individuals thrive on the smallest expression of love and thoughtful effort behind the gift.
